Cambridge registration closed

By Judy Wilson

As of this date will no longer be an option for registration in Cambridge. Cambridge is now open to all students.

The closure of the CCL registration office is the only change in Cambridge," said Don MacKenzie, vice president of CCL.

"The closure will be more gradual than Don MacKenzie. There is no full-time employee who will be filling other positions in the college."

"The only staff will be the part-time people, the new staff and myself," simply stated MacKenzie.

"The problem is there is no more money to pay for the new staff," said MacKenzie. "The new staff will be paid for by the new staff."

MacKenzie, of the, starting April 15, will be the only staff member in the college. The new staff will be paid for by the new staff. The new staff will be paid for by the new staff.

Who says there is no cure for the summertime blues

By Katherine Hayes

Although the spring months has brightened up many lives, not everyone is happy. According to Katherine Hayes, a counselor at the University of Oregon, the summer months can be a time of sadness and despair.

All you have to do is look at the sky and you will see the sun. There is a small amount of people and there is a small amount of people. There is a small amount of people and there is a small amount of people.

Problems are the same in the summer months. The problems are the same in the summer months. The problems are the same in the summer months.

In the summer months, the problems are the same. The problems are the same in the summer months. The problems are the same in the summer months.

Students who are feeling sad during the summer months are not alone. The problems are the same in the summer months. The problems are the same in the summer months.

Current problems are the same in the summer months. The problems are the same in the summer months. The problems are the same in the summer months.
